

Yousra Mohamed Hassan El Gohary

Senior Transport Economist

Qualifications

M.Sc. in Transport Economics, "Possibilities of Maximizing Containerization Rate of the Egyptian Foreign Trade" Faculty of Commerce, Ain Shams University, 2006

B.Sc., Economics, Faculty of Economics and Political Science, Cairo University, Cairo, Egypt, 2000

Experience:

Yousra El Gohary has more than 10 years experience at the Egyptian National Institute of Transport participating and assisting in conducting transport studies and research as well as in teaching for graduate students and training of transport professionals.

Employment Record

Assistant Lecturer at Transport Economics Department- Egypt National Institute of Transport 2006/ now.

Instructor at Transport Economics Department - Egypt National Institute of Transport 2001/2006.

Sample of Projects/Studies

Assessment of Performance of Ministry of Transport Organizations Using Key Indicators

Client: Transport Planning Authority

This study is concerned with assessment of performance of ministry of transport organizations using key indicators.

Containerization Traffic in Egyptian Containers Terminals and its Affected with the Progress of Containerization Industry and its Global Trends

Client: Transport Planning Authority (TPA)

This study is concerned with Containerization Traffic in Egyptian containers terminals and its affected with the progress of containerization industry and its global trends

The Application of Multimodal Freight Transport Road/Rail in Egypt

Client: Egyptian National Railways (ENR)

This study is meant to the application of multimodal freight transport road/rail in Egypt

Financial and Economic Feasibility Study for the Establishment of El-Sadat / Menouf Railway

Client: New Communities Authority

This study is meant to financial and economic feasibility study for the establishment of El-Sadat / Menouf railway

Improving the Share of Inland Waterways in Freight Movements and its Implications on Fuel Consumption and the Environment

Client: Organization for Energy Planning

Improving the share of inland waterways in freight movements and its implications on fuel consumption and the environment

Estimating the Costs of Typical Qualities of Goods by Road Freight Transport

Client: Transport Planning Authority

This study is meant to estimating the costs of typical qualities of goods by road freight transport

Estimating the Standard Costs of Road Freight Transport

Client: Transport Planning Authority

This study is meant to estimating the standard costs of road freight transport

Survey of Transport & Logistics System in Egypt

Client: JICA - Egypt Office

This study is meant to provide baseline data on the transport system in Egypt.

Feasibility Study for the Extension of Metro Line 2 to Qalioub

Client: Egyptian Authority for Tunnels

This study is meant to Feasibility Study for the extension of metro line 2 To Qalioub.

Regulations of Road Freight Transport in Egypt

Client: Transport Planning Authority

This study is meant to regulate road freight sector in Egypt.

Current Trends of Greater Cairo Metro Users in Summer Season

Client: National Authority for Tunnel

This study is meant to study the trends of Greater Cairo Metro users in summer season.

Country Status Report - Transport

Client : GTZ, European Commission.

This study is meant to collect data & information concerning transport sector in Egypt

Future Demand of Transport for Sinai”

Client : Transport Planning Authority

The purpose of the study is to estimate the future travel demand for Sinai and to identify the different requirements needed in the future to meet this demand, also identifying the most suitable transport modes as well as their routes of travel for freight transport.

